

NARROW AISLE HAND TRUCK

Features

14" overall hand truck width is less than standard beverage case.

Integrated kick bar assists with breaking back loads

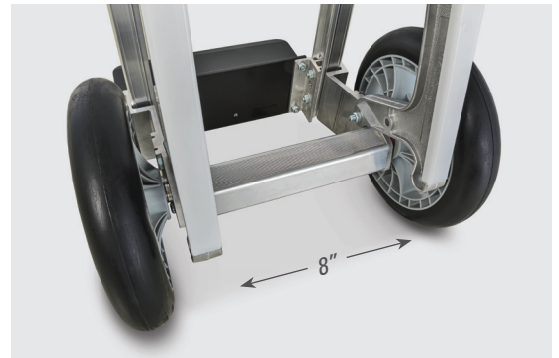

Magliner wheels include proprietary sealed bearing with lifetime lubrication.

Lightweight, high strength aircraft grade aluminum is 23% lighter than steel equivalents.

Personalization available to deter theft and promote company.

Extruded aluminum brackets engineered for optimum strength to weight issue.

- Bolted cross braces are up to 10 times more rigid and over twice as strong as riveted braces due to custom engineered internal rib structure
- Trilobular, thread locking screws exceed IFI locking standards encompassing extreme resistance to vibrational loosening

- Kick bar allows over 8" of clearance to accommodate large work boots
- Resilient aluminum design has a unique combination of high strength and low weight
- Bolted modular construction offers increased reparability and ability to easily change out components

Refer to the Magliner Hand Truck Buyers Guide for a complete list of hand truck options and accessories.